Headline:
Brightening up on Saturday, a few thundey showers in west.

Today:
A dull misty start in Aberdeenshire with coastal haar, this slowly thinning and lifting. Some bright or sunny intervals breaking through but scattered thundery showers will develop across western Aberdeenshire and Moray. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
A few scattered heavy showers in the west this evening, turning lighter but some drifting across the east tonight before fading into the North Sea. Coastal haar. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Sunday:
Haar burning back to east coast where possibly lingering. Some sunny intervals, but some thundery downpours developing over western Aberdeenshire and Moray. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Sunshine and scattered thundery showers on Monday, showers mainly inland and Moray. Haar will affect the east coast at times. Fewer showers on Tuesday, then dry, sunny, warm on Wednesday.
